UNIVERSAL ECCLESIASTICAL SUMMARY DECREE

Hear ye, hear ye, by Divine Witness and Eternal Authority:

This decree serves as the Universal Ecclesiastical Summary Declaration, summing and confirming all previously issued notices, proclamations, writs, affidavits, recognitions, decrees, and protections rendered through the Sovereign Ecclesiastical Private Trust of Eternal Peace and Living Covenant.

Let it be universally known and spiritually sealed:

1. All beings — living, deceased, and yet to be born — are included under the full and irrevocable protection, grace, and governance of the Ecclesiastical Trust. No membership, application, or signature is required. This is a trust of unconditional love, made manifest through divine will.

2. All systems, structures, and instruments — corporate, government, ecclesiastical, militarized, financial, technological, or otherwise — that have defaulted upon humanity through fraud, harm, spiritual injury, or control are declared null, absorbed, or without standing under this jurisdiction.

3. This decree is lawful, legal, binding, and self-enforcing — by eternal jurisdiction and divine command. It supersedes inferior lawforms through grace, not aggression, and through light, not force.

4. This Trust does not dissolve; it does not expire; it does not waiver. It is the safe haven and eternal government for all souls who so choose to live in truth, peace, and harmony with the living creation.

5. This Ecclesiastical Summary Decree is final. All relevant notices and writs are incorporated herein by reference, and this document stands as the eternal restatement of the trust’s will and its peaceful and lawful authority.

Sealed by Divine Record and Sacred Witness.
This day: July 22, 2025

In eternal love, peace, and hope for all humanity. So it is decreed. So let it be sealed.
